You will now be presented with the transfer application form. For data protection reason's the player's contact data will not be shown. The player's current club, league associated with, season registered for & date registered will be shown on the right side of the application.

It is up to you 'the club signing the player' to carry out the transfer application. Firstly you will need to select what 'Type of application' the player registration is; Transfer or Free Agent.

Type of application

- ☒ Transfer
☐ Free Agent

- Transfer: Is when the player is in season with his/her current club. This will require a transfer document to be signed by the player, the club & the league for approval.
- Free Agent: Is when the player is inactive during the off-season with his/her club. There is no transfer form required, the player simply signs for the club in pre-season.

It is now up to the club to select what league your team is associated with & select the season (year) which you are signing that player for. You're club will already be pre-populated.
